...Surrey

There are many places to see on a visit to Surrey, whether you are stopping for a couple of hours, visiting family, or staying for a week.

With gardens containing stunning floral displays and vistas, museums of motor racing, galleries with exhibitions, historic houses perfect for exploring, vineyards & breweries to tempt the senses, walks in the countryside, shopping, theatres, spa hotels for the most luxurious treatments, and just so much more.

Whatever you want, whenever you visit, Surrey will have something just for you.

Getting to Surrey by car

Located just south of London, Surrey has many good roads throughout the county.

The M25 travels right through the northern part of the county linking to the M3, A3, A24, M23 and A22, all of which travel north/south, providing easily accessible roads to all towns, villages, attractions and events.

Day one

With so many options of things you can do in Surrey, why not start the day at Denbies Wine Estate for a trip around the vineyard and some wine tasting in the cellars. But before leaving stay to have morning coffee in the cafe and a little look around the shop.

It's then just a short trip to Painshill Park landscape garden for a tour around this magnificent restored 18th century garden with follies and ornamental features. The Painshill Cafe provides the perfect place for a light lunch while you visit and to rest and unwind on your day.

The last stop of the day is down to Guildford, for some retail therapy or to visit Guildford Museum or Gallery or just simply a walk around the historic town.

For the evening, you can choose from the many wonderful restaurants and or perhaps even a trip to the theatre. Alternatively Dorking is perfect for a pub dinner or a meal in one of the restaurants.

Day two

After a sumptuous breakfast why not start your day at Grayshott Pottery with a tour to discover this amazing pottery which produces large commissioned works as well as individual one off creations. With a small cafe it's perfect for re-charging before continuing with the day. Just up the road is the Devil's Punch Bowl, a wonderful natural landscape creation, perfect for a walk or just simply to see the views.

Then a short drive up to Loseley Park, an Elizabethan country house, for an explore around the house and estate, plus a light lunch in their tea room before travelling just a few miles to the historic town of Guildford for perhaps an afternoon on the River Wey or some retail therapy in the town's fantastic shops. From highstreet favourites to independent craft, book and clothing stores, there are shops to suit all tastes.
