

TOP 10 South East England coastal golf courses

- 1. Prince's Golf Club - Kent: Prince's Golf Club offers stunning panoramic views over the course and across Sandwich Bay to the white cliffs of Ramsgate.
- 2. The Royal Cinque Ports Golf Club - Kent: The Royal Cinque Ports Golf Club is a Members' Club with an 18 hole Championship Links golf course, running along the coast of Sandwich Bay.
- 3. Hayling Golf Club - Hampshire: The stunning location of Hayling Golf Club, looking out across the Solent to the Isle of Wight, and the challenging links course with its fine greens, offers a special attraction and a unique experience for all.
- 4. Freshwater Bay Golf Club - Isle of Wight: Set on the downlands overlooking the English Channel, Freshwater Bay Golf Club is one of the most spectacular courses in the UK.
- 5. Seaford Head Golf Club - East Sussex: With some of the most breathtaking views in Sussex, Seaford Head Golf Course is an undulating links style course on the cliffs of Seaford. It has extended vista over Seaford bay, beyond to Brighton and the Seven Sisters.
- 6. North Foreland Golf Club - Kent: situated on the picturesque Kent coast, North Foreland Golf Club is one of the most popular seaside golf courses in the country.
- 7. East Brighton Golf Club - East Sussex: East Brighton Golf Club is set in an idyllic location only two miles from the city centre, with spectacular coastal views. On a clear day, the silhouette of the Isle of Wight can be seen on the horizon.
- 8. Walmer & Kingsdown Golf Club - Kent: Based high up on the famous White Cliffs of Dover, the Walmer & Kingsdown course overlooks the village of Kingsdown with a refreshing sea breeze and incredible views of the English Channel.
- 9. Gosport & Stokes Bay Golf Club - Hampshire: the club is a 9 hole links course, with 18 tees, to test all abilities, with unrivalled panoramic views of the Solent and the Isle of Wight.

10. Ventnor Golf Club - Isle of Wight: Founded in 1892, Ventnor Golf Club is the oldest club of the Isle of Wight. It provides panoramic views over the surrounding countryside and English Channel.