

Welcome to England's South Coast!

England's South coast stretches some 400 miles from Margate on the Isle of Thanet down to Poole in Dorset. Start your coastal journey in Dover, home to the world-famous heritage coast, medieval Sandwich and quaint Deal, definitely worth taking time to stop if arriving here. Then onwards to Hastings with its hilltop castle ruins, unique cliff railway, traditional English seaside appeal, and easy access to Rye, Battle, and Bexhill on sea.

Head west to Brighton, one of Britain's liveliest cities. A city with a passion for creativity, and an eccentric bohemian atmosphere. From here you can enjoy the breathtaking views of Beachy Head and the natural beauty of the world-famous Seven Sisters at Eastbourne before you head further along the coast.

West Sussex is home to medieval Arundel, the unspoiled scenery of Mid Sussex. Chichester's Roman history, Worthing's wide-open seafront, Littlehampton's bustling harbour and the traditional seaside charm of Bognor Regis.

Next on the route is the county of Hampshire which includes the UK's ancient capital Winchester, and the waterfront port cities of Southampton and Portsmouth. Dive into Portsmouth's rich naval heritage, enjoy waterfront designer outlet shopping and take a stroll along the 3km seafront. Make a stop in Southampton, with its eclectic mix of shopping, cutting-edge art, and links to the tragic tale of the Titanic.

Hop over the water to the South East's very own island, the Isle of Wight. Discover sheltered bays, charming villages, breathtaking coastal walks, and glorious countryside. Leave via the west of the island direct to Poole, ready to set sail with City Cruises, and marvel at the stunning Jurassic coast, exclusive Sandbanks, and the unspoiled Brownsea Island.

If you are looking to explore inland destinations, then visiting the Royal Borough of Windsor & Maidenhead is not to be missed. Crowned by the stunning Windsor Castle, the beautiful River Thames, and the open expanse of Windsor Great Park.

We look forward to welcoming you to South East England, a destination full of diversity and home to an array of world-class events, festivals, and shows. Visit us at any time of the year - easy to reach, hard to leave behind!
