Guide to Autumn and Winter across the South East

Guide to Autumn and Winter across the South East

Autumn/Winter Staycations & Days Out

Dear South East Adventurer

Whether you're looking to get out and enjoy the colourful autumn landscape or head indoors to the warm, discover some of the fantastic events and places to visit over the coming months across South East England. From breath-taking exhibitions to cultural festivals, outdoor adventures and festive fun ideas, there's plenty to keep you busy.

Planning an Autumn staycation to the South East? We've got the accommodation for you, from homely self-catering cottages to friendly bed and breakfasts, independent hotels and places to bring your four-legged friends across Kent, Sussex, Hampshire, Isle of Wight, Dorset, Berkshire, Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire too.

Fairy Doors and autumn colour
Painshill, Surrey

September onwards

The beautiful landscape garden Painshill, in Cobham Surrey, is full of stunning autumn colour during Oct and Nov. Take a walk around a living work of art and discover magical follies, the sparkling Crystal Grotto and spectacular views. There is a gift shop and tea room to complete your day out. Visit between Sat 23 Oct and Sun 14 Nov and families can also spot all the wooden fairy doors hidden round the gardens.

Homeward Bound Festival Brighton,
East Sussex

2nd - 3rd October 2021

Homeward Bound is taking place at sites across Brighton and The Living Coast on the 2 & 3 October 2021. It's a celebration of the fishing and maritime industries, as well as the region's rich folk music tradition and ocean-bound cultural heritage. Raise your pint as you sway to rousing sea shanties, savour a hot-battered mackerel bun or a serving of salty fresh scallops as you wander along the promenade.
